

Teeny Tears provides tiny flannel bereavement diaper sets for the smallest angel children and their families. They are soft against delicate skin and offer dignity and modesty for the tiniest angel babies. They are perfect for stillborn infants or those that pass away in the NICU.

The small diapers fit angels between approximately 18-23 weeks. The larger diapers fit angels between about 24-30 weeks (sometimes up to 32 weeks). The diapers adjust by overlapping or expanding to fit all gestations in between.

We have provided TWO diapers per angel family so that families may bury their child with one diaper and keep the matching diaper in a memory box. We have also included distribution cards to be delivered with each diaper set.
